The Agrarian Question & Political Ecology: In Three Acts

The Agrarian Roots of Contemporary Political Ecology

Saturday March 1st, 8am: Student Center 230

Aaron Kappeler: Coffee and Socialism in the Venezuelan Andes

Garrett Graddy-Lovelace: 21st Century Agrarian Questions, or Paradoxes of US-Cuba Agricultural Relations

Karen Rignall: The new rurality of a Moroccan oasis: agroecology and the meaning of farming in the pre-Saharan periphery

Gerardo Torres Salcido: Territorial governance. Commons dimensions in Local Agro-Food Systems

Tad Mutersbaugh: The Agrarian Question in Political Ecology

Saturday March 1st, 10am: Student Center 230

The Kentucky Agrarian Question:

Local Growers on the Struggle to Create Just Agro-Food Networks & Economies

Moderator: Garrett Graddy-Lovelace, American University

Mary Berry, Berry Center Executive Director

Nelson Escobar, founding member of La Minga organic gardeners collective

Hoppy Henton, Waverly Farms, Woodford County

Discussant: Tim Woods, University of Kentucky

Gerardo Torres Salcido National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM)

Researching Local Agro-Foods in Mexico

Saturday March 1st 11:45-12:45

Student Center 230

Brownbag Presentation

Tamales, Coffee & Chocolate Provided

Dimensions of Political Ecology Conference  Spring 2014